

Applications are being sought for members of Shoalhaven City Council's Northern, Central, and Southern Floodplain Risk Management Committees.

The purpose of the Committees is to:

1. Act as a forum for discussion on technical, social, economic, environmental and cultural issues for floodplain risk management;
2. Provide advice to Council for the preparation of Floodplain Risk Management Plans in the Shoalhaven;
3. Facilitate broad community consultation;
4. Make recommendations for Council consideration.

The Committees will meet as required, normally during business hours, at the Nowra Administration Building.

Applications Close – Friday 4 October 2019.
