TIANJARA FALLS – BOYD LOOKOUT – CUDMIRRAH

A great one-way mountain bike ride from deep in Morton National Park along fire trails to the coast at Cudmirrah (near Sussex Inlet). The first 15 kms to Boyd Lookout is hard, slow going – then it is down hill along well-maintained fire trails most of the way to Cudmirrah. These tracks are, however, very clayey in patches, and make for very difficult, slippery cycling after rain.

Kms
0.0 Leave Tianjara Falls – back along Braidwood Rd towards the coast.
1.4 Turn RIGHT onto [TWELVE MILE FIRE TRAIL]. Rough, rocky track through low scrub and heath land.
8.7 Turn LEFT at T-junction. (Tianjara Fire trail to right). Now rocky, very rough and steep down for 1.2 kms.
9.9 Cross rocky ford.
11.1 Very rough ford, very large potholes. Caution: impassable after heavy rain.
14.7 Turn RIGHT into [BOYD LOOKOUT]. Extensive views over the coastal plain, the sea, and St Georges Basin. Walking track to picnic area (off road below).
*15.1 Back at Twelve Mile Rd – turn RIGHT and start steep down. Caution: rough narrow descent. Now be wary of occasional traffic until you reach Princes Hwy.
15.5 Picnic tables, wood BBQs, pit toilet.
15.6 Steep, rough down for 1 km, then fast steady downhill formed gravel to highway.
22.9 Give way sign, Princes Hwy. Straight across onto [MONDAYONG RD].
24.2 Keep LEFT on Mondayong Forest Rd.
26.0 Keep LEFT. Peppermint Rd on right. Good cycling, gentle downhill.
28.1 Turn RIGHT into [SLATYBOX RD].
29.1 Swing RIGHT keeping on [SLATYBOX RD].
29.4 Sheoak Rd comes in on right. Ignore other tracks coming in on right and left. Track has now deteriorated, wash-aways, very muddy in wet weather.
