

South Coast Co-Operative Libraries Membership Conditions of Membership

Please note - Conditions of membership may be amended by Council from time to time. By signing the South Coast Co-Operative Libraries Membership form you are agreeing to the following conditions:

- Fees may be charged for overdue, lost or damaged items.
- Members must notify the library of lost library cards. A fee is charged for replacement cards.
- It is the responsibility of members to notify the library of any changes in contact details.
- Library cards must be presented for all transactions.
- The library is not responsible for the security of personal belongings. Please keep them with you at all times.
- Although not prohibited, the use of mobile phones and other devices must be used with consideration of other library patrons.
- Users are not permitted to view or print material online which is prohibited by law, or is deemed inappropriate or offensive by library staff. Continued viewing or printing of this type of material can lead to Internet access restrictions.
- The library is not a censoring body and therefore junior members must be accompanied by an adult when using the internet. The parent/guardian is responsible for monitoring appropriate use of all information technology applications, including the internet.
- Junior members are not allowed to access the Internet during school hours without a school pass or a parent/guardian being present.
- The Parent/Guardian of junior members is responsible for supervising what items are selected and ensuring that they are taken care of by the child.
- I understand that photos or recordings of myself (and children) at library events may be published by The South Coast Co-Operative Libraries using a range of marketing tools, including websites and social media.

You will be asked to provide identification of name and residential address. Identification we accept include:
