2011 NAIDOC Week Art Competition

The Shoalhaven Celebration of NAIDOC Arts and Culture Committee invite all school students within the Shoalhaven region to submit artworks that reflect the 2011 NAIDOC theme which is “Change- the next step is ours”.

All entries will exhibited in the Nowra School of Arts building during NAIDOC week which runs from the 3rd-10th of July 2011.

Artworks should be completed on A4 size paper accompanied by a separate piece of paper with name age address and telephone number.

All prizes are kindly donated by “Artyfacts” in Nowra and entries close on Friday 24th June 2011.

Entries can be posted to Shoalhaven Arts Centre, PO Box 42 Nowra, NSW, 2541 or hand delivered to the Shoalhaven Arts Centre at 12 Berry Street, Nowra, NSW, 2541.

NAIDOC Week celebrations are held across Australia each July to celebrate the history, culture and achievements of Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander people.

Getting involved in NAIDOC Week activities is a great way to support the local Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander community.
