“Name the New Space” Competition Shoalhaven Entertainment Centre

Construction of the extensions to the Shoalhaven Entertainment Centre are approaching completion which feature a new function room and bar along with a foyer extension and additional toilets for patrons.

To celebrate, the Shoalhaven Entertainment Centre is running a “Name the New Space” competition to find a name for the new function room and bar.

Soon to be available for hire, the “New Space” boasts the centre’s iconic floor to ceiling windows and will be a versatile space designed to suit everything from weddings and cocktail parties to corporate business events.

The Shoalhaven Entertainment Centre is seeking ideas for the new name to be submitted via email to info@shoalhavenentertainment.com.au. The winning entry will receive a $50 gift voucher to the centre in addition to the naming rights to the new space. Entries close 20/05/11.

Shoalhaven City Mayor Councillor Paul Green praised the idea and said it’s a great opportunity for the community to get involved.

“The new space has a really great feel and I can see it getting used a lot” Clr Green said.

“Its exciting that the community will be given this opportunity to be involved, the centre is there for our community and its something the Shoalhaven is proud of” Clr Green said.
