We Find Stuff!- Library and Information Week, May 21-27th

Shoalhaven libraries are gearing up for some great celebrations during Library and Information Week in May, with the theme “We find stuff.”

Nowra, Ulladulla, Milton and Sanctuary Point Libraries all have activities running during the week.

Nowra library will host a presentation on the link between high blood pressure and diabetes on Tuesday 24th of May at 10.30am

National Simultaneous Storytime is a highlight of the week, where public libraries all around the country join to tell the same story at the same time on the same day. This year’s story is Feathers for Phoebe by Rod Clement and it will be read at 11am on Tuesday 25th of May at Ulladulla, Sanctuary Point and Nowra Libraries.

Thursday 26th May will see Ulladulla, Nowra and Sanctuary Point libraries host Australia’s biggest morning tea. All library visitors are asked to donate a coin and partake in morning tea served by library staff. Milton library will host their morning tea on Wednesday following National Simultaneous storytime.

On Friday the 27th, at 2.30 pm, Nowra library presents an author talk by emerging writer Amanda Cole. Amanda who grew up in Cambewarra has written three popular works called “Who needs prince charming, ““You are my future” and “I hate Cinderella”.

Amanda is excited to be speaking in her home town and is sure to entertain with stories of her experiences as a young and upcoming writer.
