Last chance to comment on draft Master Plans

Public exhibition of the draft Nowra CBD Master Plan and the draft Riverfront Precinct Master plan will end on 28 March, with public comments accepted by Shoalhaven City Council until 5pm on 4 April.

Both draft master plans deal with the growth of Nowra's CBD and riverfront precinct.

Council has recently held a meeting of the Shoalhaven Riverfront Advisory Group which is formulating a submission on the draft Master Plans.

Council will hold a drop in centre in Junction Court, Nowra on Monday 28 March to provide information on the combined draft master plans. Council staff will be available to answer questions on the draft master plans between 12 noon and 2pm.

You can view the draft Shoalhaven Riverfront Gateway Precinct Master Plan and the draft Nowra CBD Urban Design Master Plan at:

- Nowra Administrative Centre, Bridge Road, Nowra
- All Shoalhaven City Libraries
- In the shop window [behind the CUA business] in Nowra mall facing Junction Court
- Council's Ulladulla Administrative Centre, Deering Street, Ulladulla
- On Council's internet site at www.shoalhaven.nsw.gov.au

Comments on the draft master plans may be submitted to Council up to 5pm Monday 4 April 2011 and can be in writing, email or fax to Council. Submissions can also be made via Council's internet site and all written correspondence should be addressed to the General Manager, Shoalhaven City Council, PO Box 42 Nowra 2541.

Form letters will be considered but not acknowledged. Please quote file reference 39962E in all correspondence. Further enquires can be made to Strategic Planning and Infrastructure Group on (02) 4429 3485.
