HSBC NSW Waratahs in Nowra for Super Rugby Trial game

As part of the HSBC Waratahs visit to Nowra for the Super Rugby Trial Game against the Western Force at Shoalhaven Rugby Park on Thursday 10 February, the Waratahs will also be involved in a range of activities to promote the game and also participation in rugby locally.

On Tuesday 8 February some of squad's highest profile players and coaches will attend Shoalhaven Rugby Club's junior and senior registrations for the 2011 season at Shoalhaven Rugby Park, South Nowra.

The junior registration will run from 4.30pm to 7pm and senior registrations from 5.30pm to 7pm. HSBC Waratahs players and coaches will attend from 6pm.

For all interested children, an open skills clinic will be held with the HSBC Waratahs on Wednesday 9 February from 3.30pm to 5pm at Shoalhaven Rugby Park. Any children interested in playing rugby or just meeting the Tahs ahead of the big game are encouraged to attend.

On Thursday 10 February the team will be visiting local schools in the Nowra area to promote the big game and also encourage students to participate in sport and in particular rugby. They will be accompanied on some of these visits by Development Officers from the Australian Rugby Union. Some of the schools that will be involved in this opportunity include Nowra Public School, St. Michaels Primary School, Nowra High School, Shoalhaven High School, Nowra East Public School and Illaroo Road Public School.
