

3rd December 2010

Safety measures for Burrill Lake Opening

Council will open the entrance to Burrill Lake today.

People are reminded that the work area delimited by warning signs and safety tape should not be trespassed during lake entrance opening works.

Should people fail to comply with this direction Council will stop works and entrance opening will not progress because of overriding safety concerns.

CONTACT: Natural Resources and Flood Plain Manager Isabelle Ghetti (02) 4429 3300