Council to hold Extraordinary meeting

Shoalhaven City Council will hold an extraordinary meeting on Thursday 5 August from 4pm to discuss legal proceedings concerning the proposed community housing development in Worrigeer.

Council will discuss the legal proceedings between Council and the Southern Cross Community Housing Limited regarding the proposed community housing in the land bounded by Golden Grove, Worrigeer Road and Greenwell Point Road.

General Manager Russ Pigg said the extraordinary meeting of Council will be held to obtain Council's direction prior to a hearing in the Land and Environment Court on Monday 9 August.

The Council previously revoked the General Manager's authority to make decisions regarding the Development Application [DA09/1736] and the Class 1 Appeal.
