Understanding Floods

Council has a series of videos available online to assist the community to better understand flooding and minimise risks to personal safety and property.

This series of videos features flood stories from local people together with information from State and Local Government staff involved in flood planning and management.

The videos outline the history of flooding in the Shoalhaven, explain flood management processes, provide guidance to the community on how to be flood prepared and bust a few common flood myths.

It is critical that communities in flood-liaable areas learn about flooding and how to be flood prepared, as flooding can occur at any time. Being flood prepared builds community resilience and enables people to cope more effectively during and after a flood. View the videos here
