Author Talk at Nowra Library tonight 5.30pm

Wednesday, 24 April Nowra Library will host a free author talk with Steve Matthews.

From 5.30pm he will discuss his novel The Skinny Girl, a thought-provoking novel about a victim of emotional abuse, highlighting how attitudes and values shape perceptions of what is acceptable in relationships, how culture contributes to domestic violence, and how stories of silence must, in the end, be told.

The Skinny Girl is Steve's first adult fiction novel and he is donating all proceeds from the book, in perpetuity, to the Homicide Victims Support Group and other organisations involved in similar work. Tickets are FREE but bookings are essential see Eventbrite for details.

Look Out Before You Step Out

Shoalhaven City Council is urging pedestrians to stay alert when crossing the road.

The advice comes as the 'Look out before you step out' footpath stickers are being installed at pedestrian crossings, intersections and pedestrian refuges throughout the Shoalhaven.

With an increase in technology use such as mobile phones, we are becoming less aware of our surroundings, as drivers and pedestrians we are more distracted. Drivers and pedestrians need to be more aware of their surroundings, drivers need to slow down and look out for pedestrians in high traffic areas. Even if pedestrians are familiar with the road, it's vital to take an extra moment to look out before you step out, and always choose the safest place and time to cross. Safe Disposal of Asbestos

Asbestos is in more places around our yards and homes than we think and it is extremely important that the correct measures are taken for its removal when renovating any building structure that's older than 30 years. To receive a copy of Council's "Guide to the Safe Disposal of Asbestos" call Waste Services on 4429 3111 or download a copy here.
