Expression of Interest

Sanctuary Point Library – Public Art

Shoalhaven City Council is calling for Expressions of Interest (EOI) from local First Nations artists for a number of permanent public artwork commissions as part of the new Sanctuary Point Public Library opening in 2024.

The new library will be located in the heart of Sanctuary Point Village, on the corner of Paradise Beach Road and Kerry Street. It is surrounded by retail shops, Francis Ryan Reserve, the police Station and the Country Club.

There are three public artwork opportunities within the Sanctuary Point Library site, and it is anticipated that a different artistic team will be engaged for each opportunity, however you are welcome to nominate yourself to be considered for more than one option.

Opportunities:

- SEA – Freestanding sculpture
- SKY – Embedded lighting artwork
- LAND – Sunshades

Further information and an EOI form and Scoping Document can be downloaded from the Council's Get Involved Page Sanctuary Point Library | Get Involved Shoalhaven (nsw.gov.au).

Submissions should be sent to the General Manager of Shoalhaven City Council, PO Box 42, Nowra NSW 2541 – Attn: Sanctuary Point Library – Public Art EOI ref. 71326E.

Closing date/time: 5pm Monday, 8 August 2022.

Enquiries: Sarah Taylor, Library Services Manager on 02 4429 3702 or Bronwyn Coulston, Manager – Arts and Culture on 02 4429 5444

Year are now open and will close on Sunday, 14 August 2022.

The new application process requires applications and required documents to be submitted to Council via <https://www.shoalhaven.nsw.gov.au/Council/Grants-Funding> Applications will then be assessed by the Donations Assessment Panel, with applications being reported to the elected Council to seek endorsement for financial assistance.

Further information on the application process and eligibility criteria is available on Council's website or by contacting Council's Governance Team on 02 4429 3316.
