

WORK HEALTH AND SAFETY POLICY

Shoalhaven City Council is committed to providing a healthy and safe workplace for all workers and visitors. We are committed to:

- the provision and maintenance of safe systems of work, and effective hazard identification and risk management processes, consistent with our activities and the scale of our health and safety risks
- consultation with workers to involve them in decision making where there is an impact on their health and safety
- the establishment, monitoring and review of health and safety objectives and targets to ensure continuous improvement aimed at the elimination of work related illness and injury
- the compliance with all health and safety legislation, codes, standards, self-insurer and other requirements relevant to Council's activities, products and services
- ensuring health and safety responsibilities for workers and others are identified, documented and communicated; and that adequate authority is assigned to allow fulfilment of responsibilities
- the provision of health and safety training and instruction to workers and others to ensure safe work practices are followed
- the supervision of workers, as appropriate, considering the risk of work activities to be undertaken; and the experience and competence of the workers required to perform the work
- the dissemination of relevant safety information to workers and visitors to the workplace
- the implementation of this work health and safety policy across all areas of Council through the allocation of adequate physical, financial and human resources.
