

Applications are being sought for members of Shoalhaven City Council's Northern, Central, and Southern Floodplain Risk Management Committees.

The Committee are looking for people with:

- A broad interest, knowledge and understanding of floodplain management and the areas within the committee's jurisdiction.
- A commitment to floodplain management in the nominated Council area; and
- Local resident or business person living or working in or near a flood prone area.

Purpose

Floodplain Risk Management Committees help Council manage flood risks across the city and help to develop Council's Floodplain Risk Management Plans as outlined in the NSW Floodplain Development Manual guidelines.

Shoalhaven City Council encourages applications from Aboriginal community members.

The Committees will meet as required, normally during business hours, at the Nowra Administration Building or via online.
