

Notification Food Business

City Development – Environmental Services

Guidance

Once received this information will be entered into Council's Food Business Register. Your premises will then be routinely inspected at least once per year dependent upon risk and on-going performance and compliance with the Regulations.

Note:

- At the completion of a routine inspection, all food businesses will receive a Food Premises Assessment Report. This report may require the proprietor of the food business to undertake corrective action to address areas of non-compliance and re-inspections may be necessary.
- Food businesses are then invoiced after each routine inspection and re-inspections where required.
