

Family & Community Services

The Honourable John Ajaka, Minister for Disability Services and Donna Rygate the CEO of Local Government NSW would like to invite you to participate in a workshop that aims to improve access to tourist attractions, recreational activities, and public events for people with disability and their carers in NSW.

Join us to contribute your knowledge and learn:

- Latest insights about accessible tourism - the social and economic benefits
- The good work that has been done along the South Coast to improve access
- Practical actions to continue improving and addressing access issues
- How local businesses and councils can work together to improve access and make their communities more inclusive

RSVP:

Please reply to this invitation by Tuesday 9 August. Please advise your accessibility and dietary requirements. Lunch and a light afternoon tea will be served.

Please feel free to share this invitation with relevant colleagues or stakeholders.
