Looking for Sprung performers

SPRUNG, Shoalhaven's newly established Performing Arts Networking Group, will hold their inaugural meeting on Monday 8 February 2010 at Nowra Players Theatre, Bomaderry.

Shoalhaven City Council's Arts & Events Manager Rachael French said the Shoalhaven supports an active and diverse range of Performing Art Groups, and Council has moved to form a networking Group, SPRUNG, to allow the groups to talk and learn from each other.

"I'm hoping that SPRUNG will be able share resources and knowledge, and work to raise the profile of existing and potential performing art venues in the city," Ms French said. "We are keen to see local groups working together to enhance the performing arts opportunities in the city and attract further skill development opportunities to the region.

"Already many local dance, theatre, music groups and schools have put their hands up to join SPRUNG and a large group is anticipated for the first meeting to be held at Nowra Players Theatre on Monday 8 February."

Members from the Nowra Players will be giving a tour of their facility and wardrobe, and an overview of their program and their approach to archiving and record keeping.
